

It is Marshal Powell now.

The Carlton stucco mill will be moved to Gypsum City.

"Sold out" is the cry of the defeated Democratic candidates.

Of all glad words of tongue or pen, the gladdest are "We've got our Ben."

Judge Seeds issued a marriage license to Phillip Hoak and Mary Hoover, both of Detroit.

Prof. Elmer's lecture at the Baptist church next Monday night will be an attractive feature.

All honor to Madison Monroe Shippe. He is too philosophical and too sensible to be a Democrat.

The Morris county prisoners who have been confined in the Dickinson county jail, were taken to Council Grove Monday by Sheriff Nail and the sheriff of Morris county.

The rush for cloaks at Hawk & Shelton's keeps the counters piled with garments shown to customers. If you are going to get your wife or daughter a cloak this season, now is the time.

The much-dispersed plates only occupy thirteen columns of the News this week. Nothing like the glass-houses-throw-stones proverb to bring a paper up standing if you give it time enough.

For sale cheap—almost given away—three mail carriers' suits, grey with brass buttons, been used in Democratic postal service but a short time. Good reasons given for selling. Apply at the postoffice.

Rev. George Merriam was in the city Saturday evening on his way to his new home, Osage City. Mr. Merriam has filled ably the pastorate of the Baptist church here and at Solomon, and we congratulate him upon receiving this deserved promotion.

"The Mary Foster," owned by St. Louis parties, is doing some remarkable development work. The mine has more than paid expenses from grass roots. The output for the past twenty days has been $6,000, forty men employed.—(Globe Democrat.)

M. D. Herington owns a quarter interest in the above mentioned bonanza. He is to be congratulated upon his luck. The ownership of the Mary Foster is better than a seat in the Legislature.

BANK ROBBERY.

An Imitation of the James Boys' Methods at Solomon—No One Hurt and Little Money Taken.

Special to the Reflector.

SOLOMON, KAS., Nov. 10.

M. Hollingsworth's livery barn was set on fire and burned to the ground about 1 o'clock this afternoon and while every one was at the fire a man ran into the Farmers' Bank crying "Fire!" He ran to the back end of the room, wanting to know if he could get through that way. Then he ran behind the counter, holding a pistol on Mr. Ferguson, the cashier, who was at the paying teller's window, taking his money from the draw to put in the safe. The robber demanded the money which was given him.

Mr. Ferguson grabbed his pistol at the same time he handed over the money. They had a scuffle and the pistol was discharged. This scared the burglar. He dropped the pistol and ran. Mr. Ferguson followed him and shot four times at him but without hitting him. He is now probably south of town with citizens in pursuit.

Mr. Ferguson escaped with a small cut on one finger and the robber with very little money.

After the robbery Sheriff Nail was telegraphed for and with a posse of a hundred men he searched the county south of Solomon, but with no success. The man went across fields and through ravines and could not be traced.

Some thought it possible that he changed his disguise and mingled with the pursuers. The robbery was equal in boldness to any of the James boys' escapades.

Upon his return to Abilene Sheriff Nail received a despatch saying that a man, thought to be the criminal, had been captured at Carlton. Accordingly he and Under Sheriff Ellison went to Carlton yesterday but the man was not the guilty one. The county north of Carlton was searched, but still with no success.

This morning several hundred notices offering $100 reward were sent out.

The robber got away with about $300. The stable of Roe Hollingsworth which he set on fire was burned to the ground but the contents and surrounding property saved.

The following is the reward, the man's description being thought to tally with that of one, Willard Jackson, living near Gypsum City:

$100 REWARD.

The above reward will be paid for the arrest and detention of the man who robbed the Farmers' State bank, of Solomon City, Kas., on November 10, 1888. The robber is supposed to be Willard Jackson, age about 29, six feet in height, sandy complexion, sandy hair, high cheek bones, slightly stooped shoulders, large knuckles. When last seen wore burnside whiskers and mustache—red in color. Had on black slouch hat, rough black coat. Thumb on left hand probably cut and sore.

D. W. NAIL, Sheriff. Abilene, Dickinson Co., Kas.

HARRISON HAPPINESS.

A GLORIOUS RATIFICATION.

The Republicans See Their Opponents off on Their Trip up Salt River in Good Shape.

The Republican jubilee was ushered in at 5:30 p. m. Monday by an affecting exhibition of humility on the part of the Democrats.

As previously advertised, M. M. Shippe, of the street car company, assisted by several other staunch Democrats came down Third street mounted on mules which were drawing a gayly decorated street car carrying a score of joyous Republicans. Col. J. W. Gore carried a bandana banner; then came Shippe in sackcloth and ashes; Geo. Brillaart, W. P. Gulick, Pearl Ross, Geo. Anderson and John Duncan made up the rest of the party. All wore their white tiles draped in deepest mourning. Behind the car rode H. J. Landis, representative of the Union Laborites. Messrs. Cooper, Landis, Gordon, Waring, Morse Hanger, J. C. Russel, Bittling, Ed King, Johns and others were the passengers. The New Basel band preceded the company. The utmost good humor prevailed. The streets were crowded with spectators, and cheers and shouts marked the progress of the car.

IN THE EVENING

The streets were fairly alive with people and the Harrison jollifiers turned out en masse. The procession was formed on Cedar and when it moved was nearly or quite as long as that of the great parade of Oct. 20th. The New Basel band came first, after which followed the visiting clubs, flambeaux, gun club, Harrison and Morion club, Markee's band, mounted Republicans, etc., etc. Two elaborate floats representing the Salt River Packet line bearing the cabinet away and Grover on a fishing excursion made capital hits. A constant roar of cheers went up from the thousand or more men in line and made the occasion a memorable one. The gun club kept up a steady fusillade and a cannon on the public square boomed at short intervals. Several prominent Democrats walked in the procession, their hats covered with crepe. An amusing feature of the parade was the issuing of passes via the Salt River Packet line to the bystanders. The passes read: "Pass the bearer on account of British free trade up Salt River."

After the procession had traversed the principal streets of the city, it was halted in front of the band stand when began. D. R. Gordon presided and first introduced W. S. Stambaugh who made a characteristic speech, putting the audience in good humor and ending up with a hearty "three times three" for Harrison and Morton. He was followed by Hon. C. Kohler, of Enterprise, and C. C. Bittling, county attorney elect. Both gentlemen held the audience's close attention and were loudly cheered.

After the speaking bonfires blazed and cannon boomed until far into the night. The indications are that Harrison is fully elected so far as Abilene is concerned. The boys have had an abundance of fun out of it and the hearty good humor that has prevailed on all sides added much to the pleasure of the close of the campaign.

Divorce Granted.

The district court Friday granted a divorce to E. H. Griffin, Jr., of the Midland hotel, from Flora M. Maxwell, of this county. The young people had but a short married life but it proved an incompatibility of temperament that made the above result desirable.

EDUCATIONAL COLUMN.

EDITED BY

J. S. FORD, COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.

Don't forget the county Association next Saturday.

J. S. Lyons is doing good work in the Dillon school.

Chapman is building a large addition to its school house.

The high school building at Chapman will be completed soon. It is a fine building.

County association in high school room, Abilene, Saturday, Nov. 16th, beginning at 10 o'clock.

A careful attention to details is one of the chief elements of a good teacher. Nothing should be neglected.

At the October examination there were twenty-six applicants—six got second grade certificates, thirteen third grade and seven failed.

The teacher owes a duty to self. There is time, opportunity and means for self-improvement, and this should be the first duty after school room tasks are performed.

Every teacher should have a copy of Speer's Course of Study for guidance in his work. By calling on the County Superintendent you can get a copy without money and without price.

"My teacher is all eyes," remarked a pupil recently. "We can't do anything but what she sees us." That is a mark of a successful teacher, to see everything and have the pupils know that you see it.

The city teachers held an interesting institute at the high school building Saturday. The papers presented and the discussions held showed careful preparation and a thorough understanding of graded school requirements on the part of the teachers.

John MacDonald, of Topeka, whose interesting lecture at Hope last winter is remembered by a large number of teachers, is carrying forward the Shawnee county schools successfully. He continues to edit a live educational column in the Capital-Commonwealth.

J. H. Engle and assistants are moving smoothly at Chapman, and W. H. Wagner and his corps of teachers are making things hum in their elegant new building at Enterprise. J. H. Niesley and Mrs. Watson will keep the Carlton schools moving in good shape. The towns of the county have been fortunate in securing good teachers.

The fifth annual session of the Northwest Teacher's association at Beloit, Mitchell county, Kansas, beginning Thursday evening, Nov. 29th, and closing Saturday afternoon, Dec. 1st, 1888. The following names appeared on the program: Lieut. Gov. A. P. Riddle, Hon. Joel Holt, of the Supreme court, Miss Emile Kuhlmann, of Emporia.

Teacher's Institute.

Special to REFLECTOR. The Southwest Dickinson county institute was held Saturday at Solomon City. It was the best institute that has been held in that place for a long time and the people spared no effort to make the meeting a success. The sessions were held in the opera hall and it speaks well for the interest manifested by the Solomonites that the large room was filled to overflowing with teachers and others.

After the usual opening exercises Hon. E. Brunson welcomed the teachers in an appreciative speech which evidenced the gentleman's interest in educational affairs and his good wishes for the profession.

Charles G. Bear and W. E. Binder responded in brief talks characteristic of their well-known ability.

Miss Florence King, of Solomon, read a carefully prepared paper on "Primary Teaching" which gave the listeners many helpful pointers on that most difficult department of school work—the training of the little folks. Chas. G. Bear, of Wheatland, then gave an interesting discussion of "Apparatus, how secured." The lack of apparatus is one of the chief difficulties of the country teacher. Mr. B. showed how it can be secured cheaply.

The literary topic was the writings of Alice and Phoebe Cary. Miss Lillie Sutherland and Miss Field read selections.

"Composition Work," by J. H. Niesley, was a strong plea for more original written work in our schools. "Practice makes perfect" in writing as in all else.

"The Cultivation of the Aesthetic" was handled by W. E. Binder and others. Prof. S. M. Cook gave an exhaustive essay on the "Minerals of Kansas." The thorough familiarity with earth-formation evidenced by the article surprised many of the teachers who did not suspect Prof. Cook of being a professional geologist.

The usual resolutions were adopted and an adjournment taken until evening.

The program of the evening session was chiefly literary and musical. Prof. J. H. Niesley presided and many of the high school pupils of Solomon assisted in making the time pass profitably.

When an adjournment was taken it was after a most successful meeting—a fact due to the kindness of the people of Solomon as well as to the energy of the teachers.
